

Guest post guidelines

- The article must focus on Shipping, Freight, Trade, Container or Maritime Logistics.
- The article should be your original work.
- Any information or facts taken from other authors, should be credited.
- The length of the article should range between 1000 to 1500 words.
- Please do not post the same blog elsewhere, but instead the link can be promoted.
- You can provide a link to your homepage or landing page along with a brief bio about yourself, which will be a part of the guest post.
- Please send your blog as a Word document.
- We would appreciate it if the author can place a link of our website or a blog on their website.

Please get in touch via email to Florian at ffr@container-xchange.com to submit your idea.
